

To update the information in the catalog, you have to send Regional Institute of Venetian Villas (by email as well) all the data required for the updating. The request may relate to photographic documentation or to opening times or contacts.